In his first month back in office, President Donald J. Trump has taken extraordinary action to usher in a new Golden Age of America – through border security, deregulation, government accountability, and leveling the playing field for American workers, to name a few.

The positive effects of President Trump's policies continue to be felt across the country.

Here are some headlines you may have missed this weekend:

- Top automaker could move some production out of Mexico amid Trump tariff talks, CEO says
- Trump tariffs spark 'exciting time' for Ohio steel plant as CEO eyes adding jobs, boosting productivity

- San Diego migrant shelter closes after no new arrivals since Trump took office; over 100 employees laid off
- DOGE Discovers $1.9 Billion HUD Money 'Misplaced' By Biden Administration
- USDA Axes Millions in Contracts, Including $230K for 'Brazilian Forest and Gender Consultant'
- Border Czar Tom Homan: "In the last 24 hours the US Border Patrol has encountered a total of 229 aliens across the entire southwest border. That is down from a high of over 11,000 a day under Biden. I started as a Border Patrol Agent in 1984 and I don't remember the numbers ever being that low. President Trump promised a secure border and he is delivering."
